MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION ON MVD WEIMAR.

1. The acting chief of the MVD Weimar is one Colonel NETSCHONKA of Pabstrasse 20. His chief is supposed to be a general who has not yet appeared on the scene but for whom a billet is being prepared at the Villa Deinhardt, Windmuhlenstrasse.

2. Liaison officer between the MVD and the local German court is one Lt. Colonel IVANOFF.

3. There are two interrogating officers whose names are always changing. One lives at Richthofenweg 9, the other at Bertuchstrasse 29. Their interpreter during interrogations is a German named PUCHTA, who lives at Meyerstrasse 2.

COMMENT:

Sub-source for this material is Source's brother who lives in Weimar and is a student at the University of Jena. The information is considered reliable. Source is informally using her old school friends in Weimar to collect various information. One of the group is attempting to deliver to us the MVD Dienstausweis of one of the two interrogating officers mentioned in paragraph 3.

Information in this report should be compared with RIR No. 90 of 28 February, our only previous Weimar information.
